

Our Values

Please note that you can nominate more than one person for each award, as well as nominating one person for several awards.

Seeing the whole person taking an interest in every aspect of our patients, residents and each other

This award celebrates individuals who show genuine empathy and compassion towards others, taking time to connect with patients, residents, visitors, and staff, and making them feel valued. Their simple acts of kindness make a world of difference.

Delivery on promises

do what we say we will do, in the time and to the standard we promised

This award celebrates those who possess the unwavering commitment and dedication to fulfilling their promises. Their actions remind us all of the importance of accountability and reliability. By setting a positive example, they inspire us to live up to our word and to always strive for excellence.

Willingness to learn

learning through education, experience and being open to new ideas

Do you know someone who is always eager to learn something new? This person may be someone who learns from their mistakes, seeks advice, guidance, and education from others, or takes time to develop new skills. By being open to learning, they have demonstrated exceptional growth and development.

Honesty and integrity

to be open, truthful and professional at all times

Is there someone whom you trust for their sincere honesty and integrity? This person is truthful and sincere in their words and actions. They take responsibility for their actions, own up to their mistakes, and are honest and ethical at all times.
